OUTSTANDING VALUE...
Intrepid trips are designed to be different, but one thing they do have in common – without exception – is great value for money. For the cost of one trip, you'll take home many, many unforgettable experiences. We really know the kind of value to get and do whenever we take you, so you don't waste any of your precious time away. What's more, we cover you the cost of a single supplement by booking on a twin share basis as standard.

LESS IS MORE...
We think the smaller the group the better the experience. That's why we limit the numbers on every Intrepid trip. Traveling in a group of no more than 12 people is both more fun and more organized. It means you get to experience more of the local culture too. As a small group, we don't dominate and we can actually get to know the people we meet.

LOCAL INTERACTION...
Whenever we go in the world, we don't just go to look, but to experience the culture and way of life. We don't just go to look, but to experience the culture and way of life. We don't just go to look, but to experience the culture and way of life. We don't just go to look, but to experience the culture and way of life.
